Sounds good. Carolyn, should we have some sort of public response ready in case we get media questions that might ask similar questions that was raised in the QFRs?

I'm not sure if we'll get these from press or not, but wanted to flag just in case.

She saw the earlier versions I think right? I already gave them the green light (because we want them to get this done once and for all.) Feel free to share but ask her only to comment if it's critical.

Should Samantha Jones take a look at the final PR? I'm not seeing anything there that raises a concern, but a set of eyes that hasn't looked at this before might be a good thing.

Hi- can you take another look at the final press release. The second attachment outlines what OPA plans to do on the web. Let me know if you have comments or concerns.

Andrea says that they plan to actually do this tomorrow sometime. 😊
